College of Physicians and Surgeons
Toronto - of Ontario

We firmly believe that it goes against the Charter of Rights to force physicians and surgeons to act against their own personal beliefs and be forced to go against their conscience and religion in non-emergency cases.

Please keep the right to refuse for these reasons - part of the policy for doctors. They must be free to follow their conscience.