To Whom It May Concern:

I do not think a physician should be forced to provide a patient with a treatment or procedure that is in conflict with the physician's religious or moral beliefs. All people know right from wrong. No governing body should be allowed to impose its misguided agenda on anyone in our country.