To Whom it may concern:

I am writing to express to the CPSO that I insist on the right of doctors to follow their conscience in their practice of medicine and health care. To go against his or her conscience is a very serious matter for a person who follows his or her beliefs strictly. It could have a serious and negative effect on that person. If I go to a doctor, I want to be sure that I am being treated by one who really wants to do what is best for me. Don't we want really responsible doctors who want to do what is right? A doctor who follows his or her conscience would...
