The COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS OF ONTARIO is seeking public input as part of its review of its Physicians and the Ontario Human Rights Code policy.

The question: Do you think a physician should be allowed to refuse to provide a patient with a treatment or procedure because it conflicts with the physician's religious or moral beliefs?

No, I do not agree that physicians should be allowed to refuse patients with treatment or procedures because it conflicts with physicians' religious or moral beliefs. What about the oath they take?

HERE ARE SOME INPUT OPTIONS:

1) Email the College: humanrights@cpsso.on.ca

OR

2) Send regular mail to the College:
   College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario,
   80 College St., Toronto, ON M5G 2E2

If you prefer computer access, here is the direct link for public input on the College of Physicians and Surgeons website:
