August 2, 2014

College of Physicians & Surgeons of Ontario
80 College St
Toronto, On  M5G 2E2

To whom it may concern:

The question being do we think a physician should be allowed to refuse to provide a treatment or procedure to a patient because it conflicts with the physician's religious or moral beliefs?

The answer is YES.