The draft policy fails to respect the human rights of doctors and their conscientious rights.

Referring for an abortion practice is tantamount to performing it. Doctors who refuse to kill patients or refer them to those who will are obeying the Hippocratic Oath to do no harm.

What is legal is not necessarily what is moral. The extermination of Jews, homosexuals, and Gypsies was legal in Nazi Germany.