If doctors of good conscience left practice rather than violate their conscience we can rename Canada Kevorkianville. Oh, yes and let's put the maple leaf on the flag with hemlock! Sadder.

To whomever it may concern (that's all of us!)
Re: Physicians right to conscientious objection when forced to refer for practices which violate their morals and like principles.

Let doctors serve life; that's medicine's high calling. Canada does not need death agents.
