Feb. 16/15

College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario
80 College St.,
Toronto, ON
M5G 2E2

Dear Members,

I totally oppose any policy that would compel physicians, who decline to participate in acts that violate their conscience, to refer patients to others who would perform those acts.

I firmly believe physicians must be allowed to respect their own conscience. That is a fundamental right.

The just and appropriate goal must be to draft policy to include a strong, clear defence of the freedom of conscience for all physicians.