CP 50
80 College Street
Toronto Ont M5G 1E2

Dear Sir/Madam,

Freedom of conscience is a fundamental principle of society that must be defended and is a necessary right in all democracies. Doctors must be free to practice their profession to care for the sick by being true to their conscience.

February 16/2015