Thank you to the CPO for being open to the public's consultations.

The saga goes to maintain the current charter rights and freedom of religion and conscience. A physician should never be compelled to act against his freedom of conscience which goes against the charter.

Refusing to perform some procedure has nothing to do with patient requests and everything to do with the physician's decision about the wrongness of those procedures.

Thank you.