Block 1: Introduction

Conflicts of Interest and Industry Relationships: Draft Policy and Advice to the Profession

The College of Physicians and Surgeons (CPSO) is currently reviewing the Physicians' Relationships with Industry: Practice, Education and Research policy.

We are seeking feedback on a newly titled draft Conflicts of Interest and Industry Relationships policy and companion Advice to the Profession document. The draft policy sets out expectations for physicians around avoiding and managing conflicts of interest in the context of:

- clinical practice,
- continuing medical education/continuing professional development (CME/CPD),
- consultation/advisory boards, and
- industry-sponsored research.

We are inviting feedback at this stage to help inform future revisions to the draft policy.

The following survey asks you a few questions about the draft policy and Advice. It will take approximately 15 minutes to complete. You will be able to pause during the survey and restart at a later time if you wish.

If you would like to review the survey in advance, you can download a copy here.

All survey responses will be reviewed and a summary of the results will be posted online

Block 3: All Respondents

The following questions will ask you about changes to the draft Conflicts of Interest and Industry Relationships policy.

Conflict of Interest Definition

The current definition of conflict of interest is as follows:

A conflict of interest is created any time a reasonable person could perceive that a physician's personal interest or relationship with industry is at odds with their professional responsibilities. In this policy, the term "conflict of interest" is defined broadly and in accordance with the definition above. While sections 15-17 of Ontario Regulation 114/94 under the Medicine Act, 1991 describe some specific situations that constitute conflicts of interest, this policy is not limited in its scope to those specific situations.

The new draft definition is as follows:

A conflict of interest is created any time a reasonable person could perceive that a physician's judgments or decisions about a primary interest (e.g., the patient's best interests, unbiased medical research) are compromised by a secondary interest (e.g., direct financial gain, professional advancement).

For review only. Surveys must be completed and submitted online.

Please indicate the extent to which you agree or disagree that physicians must meet the following expectations:

	Strongly agree	Somewhat agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Somewhat disagree	Strongly disagree
The new draft definition of "conflict of interest" is clear.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The examples provided of primary and secondary interests are clear.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The new draft definition is better than the current definition.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

Optional: Please feel free to elaborate on your answers above. For example, if you think that the definition is not clear, what would make it clearer? If you prefer the current definition over the new draft definition, why?

General

In this policy, industry refers to the full range of commercial enterprises associated with health care (e.g., the pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and medical device industries.)

The policy recognizes that interactions with industry can benefit both physicians and patients by advancing medical knowledge and improving patient care. However, sometimes the goals and interests of industry may be at odds with a physician's professional and legal obligations.

The draft policy aims to help physicians navigate their interactions with industry and manage conflicts of interest appropriately.

Please indicate the extent to which you think industry involvement with physicians is a concern in the following contexts:

The draft policy addresses perceived, potential, and actual conflicts of interest with the following provision:

Physicians must identify situations or circumstances that are, may reasonably be perceived to be, or may lead to, a conflict of interest and avoid or appropriately manage them.

and actual conflicts of interest.

Optional: Please feel free to elaborate on your answers above.

New General Expectations

The draft policy includes new expectations which apply to physicians' interactions with industry generally.

One new expectation is as follows:

Physicians must fulfil their fiduciary duties to their patients by acting in good faith and in the patient's best interest when resolving conflicts of interest.

This expectation is based on the fact that the physician-patient relationship is a fiduciary relationship. In this relationship, the balance of knowledge and information favours the physician, so that patients are reliant on their physicians and may be vulnerable. Patients rely on and must be confident that the physician has put the needs of the patient first.

An additional expectation is as follows:

Physicians must be transparent and proactively disclose conflicts of interest and details of their interactions with industry to the relevant parties (e.g., patients, research participants, institutions) where they may be reasonably perceived to influence the physician's judgment.

Please indicate the extent to which you agree or disagree with the following statements:

Conflicts of Interest under the Medicine Act, 1991

We heard during early engagement activities that physicians wanted more guidance around conflicts of interest in the context of making referrals or renting premises.

To address this gap, the draft policy includes a new section which refers to the relevant regulation setting out circumstances that would constitute a conflict of interest, including, but not limited to, when physicians receive a benefit for referring patients and for renting premises.

New Requirement

Under the regulation, physicians who order a diagnostic or therapeutic service at a facility in which they or their family member has a proprietary interest can only do so if they meet certain requirements (i.e., if the physician discloses the propriety interest to the patient before performing the service, or if the facility is owned by a publicly traded corporation not owned or controlled by them or their family member.)

The draft policy contains new expectations for physicians ordering a diagnostic or therapeutic service at a facility where they or their family member has a proprietary interest.

The new expectations are as follows:

For review only. Surveys must be completed and submitted online.

Physicians must communicate to the patient that:

- the patient can obtain the diagnostic or therapeutic service elsewhere; and
- the patient's choice will not affect the physician-patient relationship, or the quality of health services provided by the physician.

Please indicate the extent to which you agree or disagree that it is important for physicians to meet the above new expectations:

- Strongly agree
- Somewhat agree
- Neither agree nor disagree
- Somewhat disagree
- Strongly disagree

Optional: Please feel free to elaborate on your answers above. For example, if you agree that it is important for physicians to meet the expectations outlined above, why? If you disagree, why?

Samples

The draft policy contains a new expectation for physicians to consider the influence of samples on their prescribing choices and to use clinical evidence when choosing the appropriate drug or device for a patient, ensuring that it aligns with their best interests.

The Advice to the Profession specifies that this includes taking into account whether the sample is the physician's first choice of treatment and any impact that using samples may have on a patient's current and future costs.

Please indicate the extent to which you agree or disagree with the following statements:

	Strongly agree	Somewhat agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Somewhat disagree	Strongly disagree

It is important for the draft policy to require physicians to consider the influence of samples on their prescribing choices.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The Advice sets out helpful guidance for physicians distributing samples.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

Optional: Please feel free to elaborate on your answers above. For example, if you think samples are beneficial or are not beneficial, why or why not? Are there additional considerations you believe physicians should make when distributing samples?

For review only. Surveys must be completed and submitted online.

Continuing Medical Education/Continuing Professional Development (CME/CPD)

In the context of CME/CPD for physicians, accredited activities and/or events are those that have met a defined set of standards.

In 2018, a national standard for the approval of accredited CME/CPD events came into effect. These standards set out rules around the development, delivery, and evaluation of accredited CME/CPD activities—for instance, the process for content development, managing and disclosing conflicts of interest, and receiving financial or in-kind support.

Accredited CME/CPD

The current policy sets out detailed requirements for organizers, presenters, and attendees of CME/CPD events.

The draft policy replaces these requirements and now refers to relevant guidelines, including the abovementioned standards, as follows:

Physicians participating in industry-sponsored accredited CME/CPD activities and events must comply with guidelines outlined by relevant accrediting bodies, including the National standard for support of accredited CPD activities.

Unaccredited CME/CPD

For review only. Surveys must be completed and submitted online.

The draft policy includes new expectations for physicians organizing, presenting, and/or attending industry-sponsored unaccredited CME/CPD activities and the receipt of reimbursement.

These are as follows:

Physicians who organize and/or present at industry-sponsored unaccredited CPD/CME activities and events must only accept reasonable honoraria and reimbursement for hospitality (i.e., travel, lodging, and/or meal expenses).

Physicians who attend industry-sponsored unaccredited CPD/CME activities and events must not accept reimbursement or subsidies for hospitality, outside of modest meals or social events that are held as part of the activity or event.

Please indicate the extent to which you agree or disagree with the following statements:

	Strongly agree	Somewhat agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Somewhat disagree	Strongly disagree
It is sufficient for the draft policy to refer to existing standards in the CME/CPD space, including the National standard for support of accredited CPD activities.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
It is important for CPSO to set these expectations for physicians participating in unaccredited CPD/CME activities and events.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The policy expectations related to unaccredited CPD/CME activities are reasonable.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

Optional: Please feel free to elaborate on your answers above.
